

Contemporary morphological processes on the Warsaw Escarpment

Paweł route

This slide features a map of the Paweł route on the Warsaw Escarpment, marked with a red line. It includes two photographs: one showing a dirt path through a wooded area and another showing a concrete staircase on a slope.

Obserwacje terenowe Weroniki na Skarpie Ursynowskiej

This slide shows a map of Weronika's field observations on the Ursynowska Escarpment, marked with an orange line. It includes several photographs of the terrain, such as a grassy slope and a view of the city from the escarpment.

Marcin's field observations

This slide displays a map of Marcin's field observations on the Ursynowska Escarpment, marked with a blue line. It includes a photograph of a red banner that reads "REZERWAT PRZYRODY SKARPA URSYNOWSKA" and another photo of a stone wall on a slope.

Trasa Stanisława

This slide shows a map of the Stanisław route on the Warsaw Escarpment, marked with a purple line. It includes a photograph of a dirt path on a slope.

Field observations by Mikołaj

This slide features a map of Mikołaj's field observations on the Warsaw Escarpment, marked with a green line. The map includes labels for "Steep slope - downhill creep", "Slope landslides", "Stones stairs", "Bridge", and "Start the route on a sleep road". It also includes two photographs of the terrain.

Obserwacje Janka na skarpie od Powsina do Kabat

This slide shows a map of Janka's field observations on the escarpment from Powsina to Kabat, marked with a red line. It includes several photographs of the terrain, such as a dirt path and a view of the city.

Obserwacje Marianki

This slide displays a map of Marianki's field observations on the Warsaw Escarpment, marked with a green line. It includes a photograph of a concrete staircase on a slope.

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union